

Helen Bond, Coordinator of Employment & Training Programs for Real Jobs Rhode Island, RI Department of Labor & Training

Helen Bond is a Coordinator of Employment and Training Programs for the Real Jobs Rhode Island initiative at the Rhode Island Department of Labor and Training. Helen has 7 years of experience in human resources between her time with CVS Health as a Store Operations Manager and in her current role in workforce development at RI DLT. She has her Master's Degree in Human Resource Management from New England College of Business & Finance and her certification as a Human Resource Professional through SHRM (CP). She currently serves on the RISHRM Workforce Development committee.